HISTORY

- The history of Okinawa has been strongly affected by overseas influences unlike anywhere else in Japan.
- Prehistoric times in Okinawa lasted up until about the 10th century when hunting and gathering was the main form of subsistence.
- In the 12th to 15th centuries, the original Ryukyu Kingdom developed due to trade with Asian countries and built original cultures.
- In the 19th century, Ryukyu followed Japan on the path to becoming a modern country and became part of the nation building of Japan as the Okinawa prefecture.
- When the Japanese surrendered in 1945, Okinawa was placed under American Army rule for 27 years.

Did you know that Japan has a secret tropical island?

Okinawa is located at the southwest tip of Japan. It contains 160 islands in a line between the East China Sea and the Pacific Ocean. The weather in Okinawa is warm year around as it is in Japan's only subtropical region. There are sparkling emerald green seas with colorful coral reefs where you can enjoy swimming and diving with friendly tropical fish.

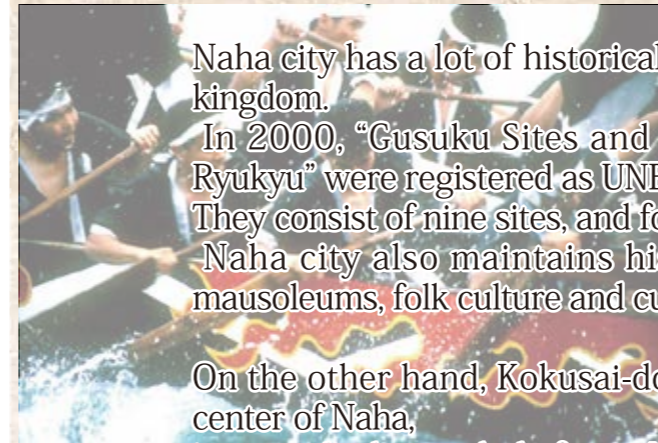

Not only the beautiful nature, Okinawa offers a variety of unique cultural experiences for tourists, such as Okinawan special food, the old Ryukyu Kingdom history and you will find the secrets why Okinawa people are well known for its longevity.

Okinawa Prefecture

Okinawa Convention & Visitors Bureau

Naha city has a lot of historical and cultural sites related to the Ryukyu kingdom.

In 2000, "Gusuku Sites and Related Properties of the Kingdom of Ryukyu" were registered as UNESCO World Heritage Site.

They consist of nine sites, and four of them are located in the city.

Naha city also maintains historical buildings, places of worship, mausoleums, folk culture and custom from the Royal period.

On the other hand, Kokusai-dori street, the main street located in the center of Naha, is not only the symbol of post-World War II reconstruction, but also one of the famous sightseeing places in Okinawa.

"Naha Haarii", "Naha Giant Tug-of-war", and "Ryukyu Kingdom Re-enactment Festival Shuri" are three major festivals of Naha city.

The number of other festivals is increasing, including Eisa dance parade and Procession of the Ryukyu Kingdom on Kokusai-dori street, as well as participatory events like sports tournaments.

Since those events have attracted interest in economic effects on local tourism, festivals of various sorts take place throughout Naha city.

In addition to big events or sightseeing spots, Naha city offers wonderful natural attractions, too.

You can see water birds at a Ramsar Convention site called Manko (Lake Man) wetland.

Diving and swimming can be enjoyed at Naminoue Beach while Tomari Wharf provides easy access to neighboring islets like Kerama islands.

Naha city enables you to experience urban attractions and natural assets, both making the city very attractive to its visitors.

Naha City Tourist Information has been relocated on the 1st floor of Tenbusu Naha on April 1st 2014.

We provide information on sightseeing facilities and various events.

Rest space and nursing room are also available for all visitors, so just pop in there during your stay in Naha City.

Kokusai St. near Kokusai St.

Kokusai St. is called "the miracle mile", because the battle of Okinawa utterly destroyed everything, but there was a slow, steady recovery along the souvenir shops and restaurants that lined the 1.6km. On Sundays, the whole street of Kokusai becomes a pedestrian zone, making it an even livelier Okinawan main street.
